The Union Party has nominated as its candidate for Governor, John Brough An eastern correspondent says "Brough is a man of much ability, an old Democratic editor and politician, has a traditional popularity with that party, and will be able to beat Vallandigham. He is an out and out war Democrat, and will be supported en masse, of course, by the friends of the Administration. His nomination was warmly urged by the leading Union papers of the State, as the most available which could be made The election of Vallandigham would be an odd thing certainly, but is within the bounds of possibility — One or two more defeats, such as Hooker encountered at Chancellorsville, sustained by the Federal armies, will make his election a certainty. On the contrary, the capture of Vicksburg or any such important and decisive success, will cause his easy defeat and reduce copperheadism in the North to very narrow limits. Although the Administration has so many opponents, there are, I presume, so many shades and degrees of opinion among them, that the downright peace party is no where very formidable Not many persons can be found who are willing to follow their opposition to the test of taking up arms against the Conscription There will be temporary and spasmodic opposition in some quarters, a few Conscription officers will be murdered, as was the case a few days ago in Indiana, but the Government will be able to carry out its policy to the end One of the most telling things against the copperhead cause, is the sudden collapse of the anti-administration party in the Border Slave States The great mass of Unionists in Kentucky and Missouri are concluding that they will let slavery fall and take any fate that the Government may decree for them. A prominent Kentuckian states that Sumner could come to Kentucky and beat Charles A Wickliffe for Governor. Three weeks ago, nine out of ten votes would have been cast for Wickliffe.'

As this letter was written prior to the late glorious events, and Vicksburg has been captured and Lee defeated, we presume there is now no question of the utter and overwhelming discomfiture of the other rebel at the head of the Ohio Copperheads

How We Stand It —Speaking of the success which has attended governmental measures in raising, without foreign aid pecuniary means for the carrying on of the war, and of the complete overthrow that time has made of the predictions of the leaders of the rebellion, who, to "fire the Southern heart," drew comforting pictures of the desolation which would certainly overtake Northern cities when King Cotton withdrew his all-powerful supplies from them, a New York paper relates a suggestive anecdote

The success of our financial policy is the bitterest of all the pills which our enemies are swallowing At the South it was proclaimed when the war began—and the utterance was widely repeated and indorsed among Southern sympathizers at the North—that the war would ruin the loyal States, and that grass would grow in our streets A Southerner who entertained these views, and who spend the last two years at the South, arrived last week in Philadelphia, when he saw around him the evidences, not of decay and ruin, but of increased activity, business and prosperity, and compared them with the melancholy scenes he had just witnessed in his own country, he burst into tears over the execrable folly which caused the war

Hopes of the Rebels — The Chattanooga Rebel furnishes the following morsel for the sympathizing Copperheads of the North

What do we hope for? Not for peace more than revenge upon a worthless, heartless and cruel enemy. We hope, and hope earnestly, to live long enough, if no longer, to see our cavalry trooping through every city, village and hamlet of the Yankees To see their women begging protection as ours have pleaded with tearful eyes to fiends in Yankee uniforms to be protected from their brutal soldiery. To see the plows torn from the hands of their farmers and broken to pieces—their fences laid waste and their homes in flames—their wives and children driven into exile and booted from their own territory by an invading enemy We hope to see all this, and speedily. We have been on the defensive too long —we should begin now to try a few experimental lessons in the aggressive This will bring peace when all other antidotes fail The rebellion will not be crushed—the abolition despot must be, if we determine

We presume those "few experimental lessons" commenced near Gettysburg If they are all as successful as the first, then the rebellion will be crushed, and that soon.

On the Way —Among the passengers who left New York June 13, by the Nicaragua route, are thirty French Sisters of Charity, some of whom are reported to be on their way to Oregon, while the remainder will stop in California.

Rev J B A Brouillet and other Catholic priests, are also passengers by the same route

Opposition to the War —In the course of the remarks made by T Starr King, July 4th, in San Francisco he said

Some men can yield almost all prejudices and all habits of affiliation and thought on the altar of nationality. but some reserves they must make The negro regiments they can't indorse Their tongues [illegible] at the Copperhead hiss when they think and speak of these Maryland is crossed, Pennsylvania is invaded, Harrisburg hears the roar of Confederate cannon, Philadelphia trembles, Washington slumbers over a [illegible] earthquake and these men see only the one institution of the emancipation proclamation and the horror of enlisting loyalty of a dusky hue But we are at war for the nation's life We are under the laws of war and on any question war asks nothing about color It asks force It asks speed of victory Powder is black war does not try to bleach it Mortars are black; it does not insist on painting them A hundred pound shot is black, it does not whitewash it to make it constitutional before committing it to the smoking muzzle It will mount valor on a squadron of Black Hawks and launch it against a battery as readily as if they were as pale as death's own steed in the Apocalypse Why should it recoil in using power in men because of that hue? A negro regiment under the American flag is not morally black The whitest rebel in arms the most cream-colored abettor of their cause in a Copperhead Convention, is black in soul The nation asks for her children now and for all they can bring with honor in her defense She does not refuse patriotism printed in black letter It is only that quality bound in sheep that she looks at with loathing She asks power to crush the rebellion She asks it from the South She has always expected to find some aid and large aid there She anticipated and hoped that it would fly to her necessities with a Caucasian complexion on its countenance But she refuses it not she welcomes it, and blesses it, and we must if we are true Americans though it come of the same color in the grain with that which a hero wears as he comes out of a charge against a rebel battery

There are others who say that they are Union men, and in favor of the Government, and yet that they are bitterly opposed to the Administration, and cannot support its policy But in war, for self existence, this divorce is impossible One might as well say at a fire while his house is beginning to crack in the flames "I am in favor of the engine, I go for the water, the hose meets my indorsement certainly I am for putting out the fire but don't ask me to help man the brakes, for I am conscientiously opposed to the hose pipe. Its muzzle isn't handsome It wasn't made by a Democrat" Perhaps the pipe is too small, and not convenient to conduct all the water which the engine is capable of throwing But it is all the implement that is at hand for reducing the flame If you want use it and help it and endeavor to pour all the power you can through it, and help to atone for its deficiency, you are for the fire, and not for your home The Administration is the only pipe we can have for nearly two years to come We are either for its efficiency or for the rebellion It is impossible to make the distinction, which can be made easily in time of peace, between the Government and the Cabinet If we cannot lay our prejudices against some portions of the policy of the Administration upon the altar of patriotism, we lay deliberately so much of our influence as we withhold thus upon the altar of the enemy

Election Returns —The vote of Walla Walla precinct is as follows Whole number of votes cast for Delegate 411 Of these Cole has 311; Raynor, 76, Kinney, 17, Turney, 7 Cole's majority over Raynor is 235 The Democratic Representative ticket is elected

It was claimed before the election that Cole would have 400 majority in Walla Walla county Rees, of the Statesman, now says the county will go 275 or 300 for Cole which is probably an over estimate

The purser of the Couch furnished us with the following from the lower counties

Arkansas precinct gives Cole 5 majority

Cathlamet gives Raynor 5 majority and Chinook gives him 20 more

At Oak Point Raynor has 12 votes Cole 8; and the Union county ticket has a majority of from four to six throughout.

How a Breckinridge Democrat Talks — The following is an extract from a letter from John W Baron, of the Third Iowa Cavalry, to his brother, who resides in Newton El Dorado county The writer was the only Breckinridge Democrat in his family, and therefore less likely to be prejudicial against the South or the peculiar institution

It has been a deep, dark and damning scheme, this secession—a devilish plot, kept secret until it was ripe for disclosure When this war is over, hell will have to be ransacked to get the colors to paint the history of this rebellion If its leaders go unpunished in this world, it will be because hemp has lost its value, and if in the next, because hell has lost its use. Excuse my vehemence, but its rather an exciting subject, especially with us soldiers

Vallandigham.—We neither justify nor disapprove the arrest of Vallandigham We are content to leave the matter entirely to the judgment of the Administration, and shall sustain its decision We do not share the forebodings of some of our Republican contemporaries, that his arrest will make party capital for the enemies of the Government.— The summary punishment of Vallandigham would alienate none from the support of the Government who are not already thoroughly disloyal at heart. — Neither would it give the slightest occasion for alarm lest our liberties should be undermined In the words of the patriotic Burnside, "there is no fear of the people losing their liberties we all know that to be the cry of demagogues, and none but the ignorant will listen to it, all intelligent men know that our people are too far advanced in the scale of religion, civilization and freedom to allow any power on earth to interfere with their liberties"—Boston Journal

The True Doctrine —The fundamental idea of the Union party, as of the American system of government, is this the will of the majority, legally expressed, must be obeyed. Thomas Jefferson unpounded this idea in his first message as President, and said that the only security for the Union was in obedience to the will of the majority If Jefferson's spirit can visit the land which he helped to free, he must look with anger upon the wicked men who, because they were beaten at an election, took up arms to destroy the government and the Union.

Battle of Gettysburg.

In the absence of a dispatch we copy the telegraph report to the Sacramento Union of the battle of Friday, July 3d, near Gettysburg

CHICAGO, July 8th.

From the New York papers received this morning, we condense the following account of the battle of Friday, July 3d The popular description of the ground held by our forces on the morning of that day would be to say it was in the form of an elongated and somewhat sharpened horseshoe, with Gettysburg heel to the south The battle commenced at daylight on the east side of the horseshoe position, opposite to that which Ewell had won. The crash of musketry preceded the rising of the sun A thick wood veiled this fight but out of its leafy darkness arose the smoke and surging swelling of the fire in the intermittent [illegible] the continuous and crashing, told of the wise tactics of the rebels of attacking in force and changing their troops Seemingly the attack of the day was to be made through that wood This demonstration was protracted, but was only preparative There was no artillery fire accompanying the musketry. Suddenly, about ten in the forenoon the firing on the east side and everywhere about the lines ceased A silence as of a deep sleep fell on the field of battle, during which the rebels moved their artillery to the number of one hundred and twenty pieces, and massed the troops of Longstreet's and Hill's corps to [illegible] About [illegible] the rebels opened on our [illegible] their artillery. Every size and form of shell known to British and American gunnery, shrieked, wailed, moaned and wrathfully fluttered over our ground, as many as six in a second bursting and screaming over and around, making a very hell of fire, which amazed the oldest officers They burst in the yard next to the fence on both sides, garnished as usual with the hitched horses of the aids and orderlies. The fastened animals reared and plunged with terror Sixteen were killed before the fire ceased A shell tore up a little step of the headquarters cottage Another carried off one of its two pillars, and the other followed almost immediately, carried away by a shot from a Whitworth gun The spherical iron burst opposite the open door Another ripped through the low garret Forty minutes passed and the air grew thicker and the howling and whirling of the infernal missiles grew more deafening Not an orderly, ambulance or straggler was to be seen upon the plain swept by this tempest of orchestral death, twenty minutes after it commenced

At the expiration of an hour this ceased, and Hill's corps, in line of battle, moved forward at the double quick, Longstreet following in supporting distance The position of our center—where the Second Corps under Gen Hancock was posted—was very strong, one portion resting on the crest of Cemetery Hill, protected in front by breastworks of rails taken from neighboring farms, and on the right by a stone wall The rebels rushed in perfect order across the open field up to the very muzzles of the guns, which tore a lane through them as they came, but they met men who were their equals in spirit and their superiors in tenacity Never was better fighting seen since Thermopylae than was done that day by our infantry and artillery The rebels carried our defenses, cleared the cannoneers and horses from one of our guns, and were whirling it around to use upon us, when a bayonet charge drove them back. At one time it was found that the ammunition of every battery upon the principal crest attacked was exhausted, and they were silent, except Crowen's His service of grape and canister were awful It enabled our line, outnumbered as it was two to one, first to beat the rebels back and then charge upon them, taking a great number of prisoners Previous to this, so terrible was our musketry and artillery fire that, when the rebel Armistead's brigade was checked in its charge and stood reeling, all its men dropped their muskets and crawled on hands and knees underneath the stream, close to our troops, where they made signs of surrendering They passed through our ranks scarcely noticed, and slowly went down the slope to the road The rebels were repulsed, but they renewed the assault half a dozen times during the afternoon and were as often repulsed and driven back with a loss unparalleled in any previous battle At the end of two hours the rebel artillery opened a new storm of shot and shell under cover of which their infantry retreated in wild disorder from our position and then from another, throwing away everything that might impede locomotion At five o'clock last evening (3d) they had withdrawn The ground all around was red with blood and covered with mangled bodies. The field was spread with evidences of the great punishment the enemy had received. Wherever our burying parties found one National soldier to inter, two rebels were lying by his side The repulse of the rebels was followed by loud shouts from our troops. Fifteen stand of colors were captured by Hancock's corps

A gentleman who left Gettysburg at ten o'clock on Sunday morning (July 5th), furnishes the following Our army advanced six miles [illegible] that place The [illegible] An occasional [illegible] skirmishing on Saturday (July 4th) but nothing of great importance.

On Saturday, the 4th, our scouts discovered the rebel baggage trains on the retreat, moving rapidly along the Hagerstown road, when a battery of flying artillery, led by a squadron of Pleasanton's cavalry, was sent from the left of Cemetery Hill, in pursuit Our men dashed rapidly down on the train A skirmish ensued and the rebel guard was driven off Reports reached camp that four miles of trains were captured All the barns and houses adjacent to the Littletown Pike laid under contribution for hospital purposes General Hancock was regarded as the great hero of Friday's battle His corps lost heavily and fought nobly When the General fell, severely wounded, the effect on his men was to give them renewed determination to conquer; and when they learned that their wounded commander was still watching them and directing their movements, they fought like demons.

Gifts from Bavaria —One of the steamers of the Hamburg and American Steamship Company, lately brought to this port over eighty large packages of fine linen and lint, which had been contributed by the friends of the Union along the Rhine, for the benefit of our sick and wounded soldiers Some of the packages were of the size of hogsheads, and all were made up of the best material The linen was especially fine.

Every package bore this inscription — "Rhenish Bavaria For the Wounded Defenders of the United States." These packages were a free gift of the freedom loving men and women of Rhineland, and were brought over by the steamship free —New York paper.

A Fair Question —The Copperheads of Ohio have nominated Vallandigham for Governor Why didn't they, when they had their hands in the dirty business of endorsing traitors keep on and nominate Jeff Davis for the next President? They might as well have gone the whole hog, when they got down into the gutter.—St Louis Democrat.

Late Foreign News

Halifax, July 7 —The Asia, from Liverpool June 27 and Queenstown June 28, has arrived

The Customhouse authorities had notified the owners of the Gibraltar, late the Sumter, that unless two guns on board were landed the vessel would be detained on suspicion that they were intended for the Confederates

In the Lords, June 26th, Russell denied the statement that Napoleon had renewed overtures for joint mediation in America

In the Commons, Roebuck announced that he should bring in a motion for the recognition of the Confederate States

The papers are filled with speculations on the probabilities of war growing out of the Polish affair. It was believed that the notes of the powers were presented to Gortschakoff on the 11th of June The Russian answer was anxiously awaited.

Till life's dark drama closes,
For the best beloved one, far away,
In a stranger's grave reposes."

While rejoicing in victory, then, let us remember our heroes fallen, and the bereaved ones that mourn their loss. Oh, cursed rebellion! whose fruits are misery and death.

City Council.—The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Report of the Committee on Ways and Means and the reports of the collector and treasurer were read and, on motion, adopted. Several unimportant accounts were ordered to be paid, and a resolution to purchase a lot of ground was read and, on motion, adopted. The toll-gate ordinance was, on motion, read the second and third times and passed. An ordinance relative to nuisances was read the first time. A resolution concering man traps was adopted, and the council then adjourned.

Turn Verein.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Portland Turn Verein, held at their hall on Sunday last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing six months: G. Goetz, president; S. Gauz, secretary; F. Bickell, treasurer; Emile Zeitfuchs, leader; S. Waterman, first assistant leader; S. Frohman and D. Hildburg, officers for regulating hall; M. Walter, singing master.

Arrived.—The Wilson G. Hunt arrived from the Cascades last evening, bringing a large number of passengers and about $15,000 in gold dust to Wells Fargo & Co.

False Alarm.—About half-past two o'clock yesterday afternoon some excitement was caused by the ringing of the fire alarm bells. The engines were promptly on the spot, but it proved to be a false alarm, caused by the lighting of the furnace fires at Monastes' foundry.

Recorder's Court.—Peter Jones and L. Shaeffer were each fined $5 and costs, for disorderly conduct. A gentleman rejoicing in the name of Kerry, for being drunk and performing sundry objectionable antics, was fined $5 and costs.

W. H. Colburn, for being drunk and disorderly, was requested to meditate for three days in the city jail, in default of paying a fine of $5 and costs.

John Green, charged with fast driving—didn't drive more than fifteen minutes in a mile—was discharged for not having faster nags.

Theatrical.—We understand that Mr. G. W. Waldron, the efficient manager of the Willamette Theater, has in course of preparation the great drama, from Harriet Beecher Stowe's thrilling picture of Southern life, entitled "Uncle Tom's Cabin." In consequence of the great preparations necessary to the effective production of this popular drama, the theatre will be closed until Saturday evening, when the citizens of Portland will have an opportunity of witnessing this most interesting play. Those who intend to take their families on this occasion would do well to purchase their tickets at an early date.

Nearly Finished.—The fine building now in course of completion at the corner of First and Alder streets, will be finished and ready for occupation in about a week hence. This property is owned by Mr. T. J. Holmes, and comprises four lofty and capacious stores, which we hope will prove as profitable to their future occupants as they are ornamental to our city.

Billious Fever Cured.

Portsmouth, Ohio, April 1, 1860.

Messrs. A. L. Scovill & Co.—Gents: I have been, for years, subject to attacks of BILIOUS FEVER; and sometimes I have been laid up for months, and my system left in a feeble state by the use of strong medicine, which was given to me by a physician.

I have been using DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS for some time. I find that I can break these attacks in a day or so, and escape entirely the fever. My daughter had an attack of DYSPEPSIA, which distressed her much; she could not eat scarcely anything without becoming nauseated at her stomach continually. Some time since she go and has been using DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS, and she is like another being. I have found also that they are the most valuable Pills for BREAKING UP COLDS, HEADACHE, PAINS IN THE SIDE AND BACK. I would not be without them in my family. THOMAS BIGGER.

EXPECTORANT
AND SANATIVE PILLS
HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG, and found such general favor in every region of country where they have been sold, (and there is no place on the civilized globe where they have not been sold) that it would seem almost superfluous at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press. Yet it is due to suffering humanity, and especially to that numerous class who, in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast, suffer from Diseases of the Lungs & Throat,
Inducing and ending in CONSUMPTION, many of whom may not have used this remedy, that they should be allowed to read of some of the cases where its influence has been useful in remedying complaints from which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT
Operates immediately upon the Disease,
SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT, while the SANATIVE PILLS, by preserving regularity in the Bowels, and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and assist the perfect operation of the former.
Attention is asked to the following Certificates, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors:

Upper Uwchlann, Chester Co, Pa, Sept 15, 1858.
Dr D. Jayne—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS, and having the advice of some of the most eminent physicians, whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove to be of any avail, I obtained no relief for my suffering until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT. After taking it for about three months, I was entirely cured.
NATHAN PENNYPACKER.

Astoria, Long Island, Jan 15, 1860.
L. W. Tinelli, Esq. New York—Sir: As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS, accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest, and great difficulty in breathing for nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in the power of medical science, when at your friendly suggestion, I began the well known (but not enough known) "EXPECTORANT" of Dr. Jayne, of Philadelphia. Three or four days after having commenced to take it, my cough had nearly subsided, the expectoration was easy, and the breathing quite free.
I am now quite another man, and my general health has never been better.
I remain, my dear Tinelli, with esteem, your servant and friend,
J. B. MONTE.

Winfield, Tuscarawas Co, O., May 31, 1860.
Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir: One bottle of your Expectorant cured my daughter of the LUNG FEVER, after having been beyond the hopes of recovery. During the attack she had a number of convulsions. She is now perfectly well.
J. H. COFFMAN.

Burlington, Bradford Co Pa, July 23, 1863.
Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir: My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 10 bottles and some PILLS, was completely cured; and is now able to labor every day. JOHN HENRY.
We would add to the above that we sold to Mr Henry the medicine for his son; and know that the statement is true.
MERRY, WILHELM & CO.

For a greater number and variety of certificates, and fuller information regarding these and other of Dr D Jayne and Sons' Preparations, reference is given to the ANNUAL ALMANAC, which may be had from any Druggist or Dealer in Medicines.

DR. BAKER'S
PAIN PANACEA.
Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.
If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.
If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.
If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.
If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.
If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day
If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be redded.
If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.
If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.
If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.
If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.
If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short tim

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE® NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

Diamond Cut Diamond.—Once a shrewd contractor found himself at the same inn with a rival who always trod close on his heels. He was followed about and cross-questioned incessantly, and gave vague answers. Within half an hour of the last moment he went into the coffee room and sat himself down in a corner where his rival could not overlook him. There and then he filled up his tender, and as he rose from the table left behind him the paper on which he had blotted it. As he left the room his rival caught up the blotting paper, and with the exulting glee of a consciously successful rival, read off the amount backwards. "Done this time," was his mental thought, as he filled up his own tender a dollar lower, and hastened to deposit it. To his utter surprise the next day he found that he had lost the contract, and complainingly asked his rival how it was, for he had "tendered below him."

"How did you know that you were below me?"

"Because I found your blotting paper."

"I thought so. I left it on purpose for you, and wrote another tender in my bed room. You had better make your own calculations next time."

Importance to the Teeth of Cleanliness.—Our teeth decay. Hence unseemly mouths, bad breath, imperfect mastication. Everybody regrets it. What is the cause? I reply, want of cleanliness. A clean tooth never decays. The mouth is a warm place—98°. Particles of meat between the teeth soon decompose. Gums and teeth must suffer. Perfect cleanliness will preserve the teeth to old age. How shall it be secured? Use a quill pick and rinse the mouth after eating. Brush and castile soap every morning; the brush and simple water on going to bed. Bestow this trifling care upon your precious teeth and you will keep them and ruin the dentists. Neglect it, and you will be sorry all your lives. Children forget. Watch them. The first teeth determine the character of the second set. Give them equal care. Sugar, acids, saleratus and hot things, are nothing when compared with food decomposing between the teeth. Mercurialization may loosen the teeth, long use may wear them out, but keep them clean and they will never decay. This advice is worth more than thousands of dollars to every boy and girl.—Dr. Lewis.

The Millionaire Stewart.—"Burleigh," the New York correspondent of the Boston Journal, states that A. T. Stewart of New York has refused to sell cotton goods at any price, and that he has been engaged in buying up all the goods he can purchase, that empty stores have been taken, warehouses rented and filled to the rafters with goods, and this done, that he has closed sales, and waits for coming events. It is well known, adds the writer, that Stewart's connection with the Government is such that he has early information of changes to take place, of movements to be made, and the signs of the times are within his vision. He has the monopoly of one kind of goods, for which the sale has been great, and the past year has been to him probably the most successful year he has ever known. Over fifteen million dollars worth of goods he has sold within the year 1862; and when he holds up and refuses to sell a class of goods, men begin to open their eyes. If we have a battle and do not win, cotton goods will run up like gold.

On the Rail.—As the midday Worcester train was about leaving the depot a man of the Johnsonian type of manners entered one of the cars, and gruffly requested that two young ladies occupying separate seats should sit together, that he and his friend might enjoy a tete-a-tete on the other seat.

"But," said one of the damsels, blushing, "this seat is engaged."

"Engaged, is it?" brusquely responded the man, "who engaged it?"

"A young man!" said the conscious maiden.

"A young man, eh, where's his baggage?" persisted Ursa Major.

"I'm his baggage, Old Hateful," replied the demure damsel, pursing her rosy lips into the prettiest pout.

"Old Hateful" subsided, the young man came in and extended an arm protectingly, almost caressingly around his "baggage," and the conductor started the train.

Newspaper Slanders.—There is reason, truth and sense in what the New Orleans Picayune says, namely:

Using violent language has become, we are sorry to say, a prevailing characteristic of the times. We fear it is a fault peculiarly American. We refer more especially to the utterances that find their way into print. Our newspapers abound in the ughest words, as though it is supposed that an article is strong and telling in proportion to the harshness and violence of the language used. The severest expressions are bandied about and made to do duty upon all occasions. A cannot differ from B without calling him a scoundrel, a traitor, a culprit, and fastening upon him, though it may not be to his face, a variety of other expletives equally choice and refined, and B not to be outdone, pays him back in his own coin. It may be, at the same time, that both A and B are excellent men, and neither of them either a scoundrel or traitor. They merely differ in opinion about something. That is all.

Houses in China.—In China, a man is not allowed to build a house above his legitimate rank in society. He may acquire a fortune by his own exertions but unless he holds some office or is born to some rank he has no liberty of architecture. Every matter relating to building is the subject of regulation by the police. The laws of the empire detail and enforce, with the greatest precision, the mode of constructing a residence for a prince of the first, second or third rank or of a grandee, or of a mandarin. According to the ancient law, the number and height of the apartments, the length and height of a building, are all regulated with precision, from the plain citizen to the mandarin, and from the mandarin up to the emperor himself.

The Schoolmaster Abroad.—One day not long since, a large, red faced woman, with a porter's load of expensive finery upon her person, entered the largest jewelry store in New York, and inquiring for diamonds, a magnificent assortment of rings, brooches, ear rings, necklaces, etc., were spread before her. From these she selected three thousand dollars worth, which she requested might be sent to her house with the bill. The clerk would find her husband at home, she said, and he would pay for them. A pen and a card were handed to her, and she was requested to write her address. She hesitated, her broad face turned from red to crimson, and finally, in great confusion, she made her mark (a big cross) on the card, and tossing it to the salesman, said, "Thar! I hain't time to write, but I guess he'll know that." The illiterate queen of diamonds was a contractor's wife.

AYER'S Catharctic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 1, 1856.

Dr. J. C. Ayer: Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing. Yours with great respect,

ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

Sir: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours,

ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

Post Office, Hartland, Liv. Co., Mich., Nov. 15, 1855.

Dr. Ayer: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here. GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

Dr. Ayer: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

Warsaw, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

Dear Sir: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

Dr. Ayer: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church.

Pulaski House, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

Honored Sir: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

Senate Chamber, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec., 1855.

Dr. Ayer: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects, and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
